Eat Bright

Who Oversees Our Food Programme?

Chef Magnus` career began at sixteen, preparing healthy meals for patients in his parents' pioneering allergy clinic. During this time he acquired a vast amount of knowledge about natural nutrition. His parents are still very active in the area of Diet and Food Allergies. Magnus has a Diploma in Nutrition from Oxford College.

Chef Magnus`s thirty-year career as an award-winning UK chef has enabled the creation of a school meal programme that truly stands out from the rest. "Eat Bright" offers child-friendly meals but are packed with 'hidden' nourishment through clever food combining and use of alternative ingredients.

Children are happy and parents are reassured that their children are being nourished.

Eat Bright

Why is the Eat Bright Program so Important

Children deserve to eat nutritious foods high in antioxidants, vitamins and essential minerals for good overall health and growth. Numerous studies have shown that eating nutritious foods packed with antioxidants, essential minerals and vitamins also improves performance, concentration, mood, focus and behavior in children.

Good nutrition is central to children's maturation: socially, emotionally, mentally and physically. Our 'Eat Bright' programme is committed to providing optimal nutrition to children on their developmental journey.

Food Nation Catering Services L.L.C in Association with Abu Dhabi Health Services (ADPHC) is proud to collaborate with 'Sehhi' - the premium program to increase access to healthy food options and promote nutritious food choices in the community.

Our offerings are tailored to meet nutritional needs, ensuring the correct balance of healthy carbs, protein and fats. Our food programme aims to maximise a child's educational potential and also to help keep the future generation fit and healthy.

We are one of U.A.E's first school catering companies to implement this in the meal program.
